HOW TO MAINTAIN PROFESSIONALISM IN THE WORKPLACE:

Tips on how to maintain professionalism:

- Avoid swearing and have respect for fellow employees no matter the rank or position of the person.
- Be productive, use your time productively at work.
- Focus on your job responsibilities and avoid getting pulled into office politics, web browsing and phone activity while at work.
- Develop a professional image, project a professional presence and dress appropriately for your industry and organization. A good rule of thumb is to dress in the position you aspire to have.
- Demonstrate integrity, be accountable for your work and actions while always behaving ethically.
- Provide excellence, produce work and results that reflect a sense of pride and professionalism, often exceeding expectations.

TERM 2 ACTIVITIES

BOB'S GOURMET MILKSHAKE BAR

Pop in at their new spot at Preller Square Shopping Centre. They offer delicious gourmet shakes, delectable cakes and food, sit down or take away.

EASTER BUNNY

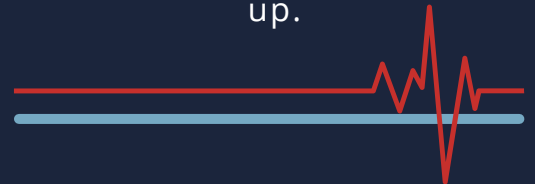

The Easter Bunny visited Preller Square Shopping Centre 30 March - 1 April, where he was handing out easter eggs to all the children at the playground.

SANBS

SANBS was at Preller Square Shopping Centre at the end of March, and they are grateful for the amount of support that they received. Every person that donated blood received a complimentary coffee from Wimpy. Thank you to our community for simply showing up.

THE STREET STORE

The Street Store is made just out of posters. You hang up donated clothes and drop shoes into boxes, then the homeless help themselves. Because you have something the homeless don't, clothes you choose not to wear.

Preller Square was proud to support this initiative by hosting a drop off event at the end of March. Thank you to everyone who contributed.

EFFICIENCY IN THE WORKPLACE – A PAPERLESS ENVIROMENT

By Abri Strauss

An efficient workplace is by far the biggest desire for any small business to be successful.

Here at Zatarra Property Group this is one of our goals as well. Having more productive workers lead to achieving goals or completing projects in a shorter timeframe. Improving workplace efficiency is about helping employees work smarter, not harder. One of these strategies is working in a paperless environment.

A paperless office is a work environment in which the use of paper is greatly reduced.

Technology is expanding every day, e-mails, data servers & cloud storage, all words we hear regularly.

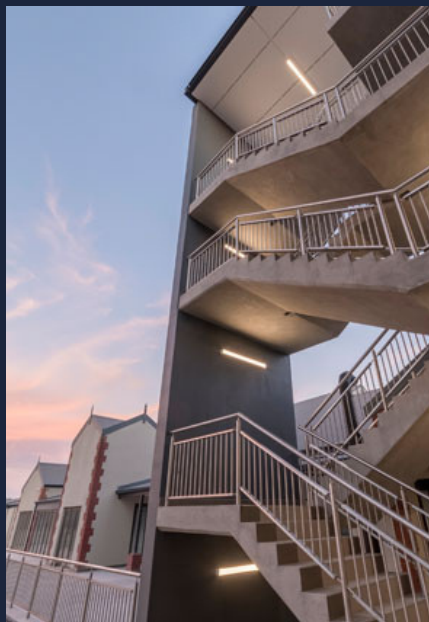

Benefits of going paperless:

- Saving time.

Workers spend 30-40 percent of their time looking for documents in physical file cabinets. Digital documents can be easily organized and indexed, which makes finding files you need much faster.

- Promoting collaboration among team members.

Staff can share files digitally without printing and view updated versions of documents in real time.

- Improving security of information.

Access rights can be assigned and revoked according to user level.

- Saving costs.

Eliminating cost spent on printing and storing documents, as well photocopier ink and office stationery.

Here at Zatarra Property Group our team understand how a paperless system helps us to become more productive, impactful and valuable in our work.
